

Indiana State Funded Environmental Technical Assistance Providers

Note: Information was obtained from organizations mentioned below. For additional information or clarification of programs please contact that organization directly.

Organization/Contact	Function/Services Related to Environmental Technical Assistance	Customers
IDEM's Compliance and Technical Assistance Program (CTAP) Contact: Marc Hancock (800) 988-7901 Statutory Authority: IC 13-28 State Funding (FY 2002): General Fund: $1,475,239 HHW: $483,575 Voluntary Compliance: $372,501 Pollution Prevention Grants: $92,095 Recycling Activities and Grants: $3,161,403	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Indiana's Small Business Assistance Program. • Provides free confidential compliance and technical assistance to Indiana businesses and municipalities through workshops, on-site visits and phone assistance. • Provides technical assistance to specific sectors through 5-Star Programs (Vehicle Maintenance, Childcare, Drycleaners, Metal Finishing) • Manage other recognition programs (Governor's Awards for Recycling and Pollution Prevention) and promote innovative projects to other businesses where appropriate. • Develop compliance and technical assistance manuals (including compliance, pollution prevention and source reduction and recycling information) for distribution to businesses. Currently, manuals have been developed for Childcare, Vehicle Maintenance, Printers, Fiberglass, Wood Finishing and the Drycleaning industries. A manual for the collision repair industry will be completed by January 2002. All manuals are updated at least annually to include changes in existing regulations and add new rules impacting the particular industry. • Provides financial and technical assistance to local communities for education and promotion of recycling collection, the use of recycled materials, solid waste source reduction, management of yard waste, and household hazardous waste (HHW) collection. • Provides pollution prevention technical assistance to businesses and IDEM. • Environmental Management Systems design and implementation. • More information can be found at: http://www.IN.gov/idem/ctap/index.html 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All Businesses • Municipalities • Citizens • Consultants • Solid Waste Management Districts • Schools • Not for Profits

Organization/Contact	Function/Services Related to Environmental Technical Assistance	Customers
Indiana Clean Manufacturing Technology and Safe Materials Institute (CMTI) Contact: Lynn A. Corson, Ph.D. (765) 463-4749 Statutory Authority: IC 13-27.5 State Funding (FY 2002): $450,000	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide process engineering technical assistance services on-site to reduce manufacturers' use of toxic raw materials and the generation of environmental wastes. • Conduct research on clean manufacturing production methods and promote the adoption of such methods using technology transfer applications such as conferences, seminars, research publication and presentation, internet postings, etc. • Assessment of the technical and economic feasibility of clean manufacturing. • Manages Coatings Applications Research Laboratory • Environmental Management Systems design and implementation • Some services include fees to be paid by facility they are assisting. • Serving selected sectors of small manufacturers engaged in plastics, metal, metal furniture and operating foundries. • More information can be found at: http://www.ecn.purdue.edu/CMTI/ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wood products manufacturing • Plastics, including fiber reinforced plastics • Metal plating and coating • Motor vehicle parts manufacturing • Metal Casting Industry
Purdue Technical Assistance Program (TAP) Contact: David R. McKinnis, Ph.D. (765) 494-6258 Statutory Authority: Listed as an economic development line item in the Purdue University appropriation State Funding (FY 2002): $1,173,004 of which $25,000 used for environmental issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provides technical advice to manufacturing companies regarding methods of compliance with new and existing regulations, advice on handling and disposal of hazardous substances, and advice on non-regulated issues such as noise and odors. Provides support to POTW's with management of current facilities and planning options for new or expanded facilities. • Qualified projects receive up to five 5 days of free assistance. Extended assistance available on a funded basis. • More information can be found at: www.purdue.edu/TAP/ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business • Industry • Government

Organization/Contact	Function/Services Related to Environmental Technical Assistance	Customers
Indiana Association of Cities and Towns Circuit Rider Program (IACT) Contact: Natalie Hurt (317) 234-2236 Statutory Authority: Contracted by IDEM State Funding (FY 2002): $109,000 from IDEM for June 1, 2001 - May 30, 2002	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provides needs assessments, observation and prioritization of problems for Indiana's cities and towns in their attempts toward environmental compliance, restoration, pollution prevention, and conservation. The program and its services are provided confidentially and free of charge. • Conducts annual workshops and conferences relating to environmental topics. • Develops publications on varied environmental topics. • More information can be found at: http://www.citiesandtowns.org/ECR/Default.html 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Municipalities • Associate Members
Indiana Department of Commerce Ombudsman and Energy Policy Division Contact: Michaela Kendall (Ombudsman) (317) 232-8926 Niles Parker (Energy) (800) 232-8940 Statutory Authority: IC 4-4-3 State Funding (FY 2002): $239,130 for Energy Policy and Ombudsman; $1,700,000 for Recycling and Grant Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Serves as a liaison between companies, communities, local economic development organizations, and regulatory agencies • Provides permit application assistance and tracking and help establish early communications with the technical staff • Provides zero interest loans, grants, small business assistance and project development and implementation in the area of recycling and energy efficiency. • More information can be found at: http://www.IN.gov/doc/doingbiz/environment.html and http://www.IN.gov/doc/energy/index.html 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Existing and New Business • Schools • Not for Profits • Utilities • University Based Research • Communities and Individuals

Organization/Contact	Function/Services Related to Environmental Technical Assistance	Customers
Small Business Development Centers (throughout the state) Contact: Debbie Bishop Trocha, Executive Director (317) 234-2082 Statutory Authority: 13 CFR Part 130 State Funding (FY 2002): $450,000	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Limited permit assistance. • Administered by the Indiana Small Business Development Corporation. • Provide workshops and seminars on regulatory compliance. • More information can be found at: http://www.isbdc.org/ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Existing and New Small Businesses